

ADULT FINE ART CLASSES

Hosted by Keith Scanlon

JANUARY - MARCH 2010

Hosted by popular artist and teacher Keith Scanlon, these beginners' art classes will cover the basics of composing a painting using acrylics. Students will utilise personal reference material as subject matter for composition and drawing. Subject matter can range from landscape, seascape, portraiture and still life. The styles explored can be an impressionistic or basic abstraction concept. The composition pursued will be left to the individual with the tutor's assistance and guidance. These small class sizes are light hearted and supportive and students can progress at their own pace.

COMMENCING Monday 15 February.
