

ADULT FINE ART CLASSES

JULY/AUGUST
2010

BEGINNERS ART CLASSES WITH KEITH SCANLON

5 weeks courses commencing 19 July.

Class Dates: 19th July, 26th July, 2nd Aug, 9th, Aug
and 16th Aug,

2 classes offered: afternoon 2.30 – 4.30pm
or evening 5 – 7pm

Hosted by popular artist and teacher Keith Scanlon, these beginners' art classes will cover the basics of composing a painting using acrylics. Students will utilise personal reference material as subject matter for composition and drawing and should bring several images of postcard size or larger to class. Subject matter can range from landscape, seascape, portraiture and still life. The styles explored can be an impressionistic or basic abstraction concept. The composition pursued will be left to the individual with the tutor's assistance and guidance. These small class sizes are light hearted and supportive and students can progress at their own pace.

Cost: $120 or $110 FOG, includes all materials.

Limited numbers - bookings essential.
These classes book out well in advance, but regular classes are planned.
